

The Workers' Action Centre

Do you have a legal problem at work?

Want to learn more about your workplace rights?

The Workers' Action Centre provides help to workers with labour standards issues, unpaid wages, terminations, workplace discrimination, and more.

We provide free, one-on-one assistance at our employment law information clinics. We also offer presentations for organizations and groups of co-workers on workplace rights, and help workers organize for workplace justice.

Need Help?

Phone us at:

(902) 221-0755

Check out our website:

<http://HalifaxWorkersAction.ca/>

The Workers' Action is committed to improving the lives and working conditions of low-waged and marginalized workers.

The Workers' Action Centre is located on Mi'kma'ki, the ancestral and unceded territory of the Mi'kmaq People.